

BURDIN

MEDIATIONS

MEL WOLOVITS
Attorney/Mediator/Arbitrator

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Business Torts / Restraint of Trade
- Business Relationship Disputes
- Employment
- Securities Fraud
- Insurance
- Professional Malpractice
- IP-Copyright / Trademark / Unfair Competition
- Construction
- Probate/Guardianship / Will Contests
- Personal Injury / Wrongful Death
- Government / Condemnation / Code Enforcement

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Harvard Law School, Negotiation Workshop, 2004
Advanced Mediation Training, 1992-1993

FINRA Mediation/Arbitration Training

B.S. Business/Accounting, Miami University

M.S. Education, Case Western Reserve University

J.D. Cleveland Marshall College of Law, Cleveland State

University

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

A 34 year a trial attorney in state and federal courts in Texas, Ohio, New Mexico, Arizona, and Oklahoma, Mr. Wolovits settles complex and contentious disputes. He is a creative dealmaker who tirelessly seeks practical solutions for business and personal disputes. Mr. Wolovits was a Board Certified Trial Attorney TBLS (Ret.) and in 2007 he became a Full-Time ADR Specialist. He has mediated over 1,700 cases and has been an Arbitrator in 20 cases.

Mel has litigation experience in a broad range of Contentious Business Relation Disputes , Breach of Contract, Commercial Collection, Construction Defect, Deceptive Trade, Unfair Competition, Governmental, Employment, Probate, Tax, Family, Trademark-Copyright; and Personal and Professional Liability cases. He also has extensive work experience in a Family Business, Accounting; teaching Elementary School and College Level Business Law as well as being an Adjunct Professor of Law-Mediation/Negotiations.

Mel and his wife, Ann, a Relationship Coach, have been married over 50 years. They have a daughter who is an Associate Director of Temple Emanuel's Early-Childhood Program, and a son who is a Pediatric Cardiac Critical-Care Physician at Children's Medical Center Dallas. They are the proud grandparents of 5 beautiful granddaughters and one handsome grandson.